When the temperature's rising Daniel 3:1-18

How to stand against the world: clarity and courage

1. See the false gods for what they are

their subtlety

their appeal

their tyranny

2. Know the true God for who He is

He's worthy

3. Because this is how the battle is won<sup>1</sup>

Questions for discussion

1. Can you think of an example in your experience of the subtlety, appeal, or tyranny of false gods in our own day?
2. Can you think of situations where God has not answered prayers in the way you hoped? How does the example of the friends in v18 help?
3. This chapter ends with the king calling all people's, nations, and tongues to acknowledge the true God, and the turning point is 3 believers being faithful in the midst of opposition. How is this an encouragement to you?
