

ISN'T FAITH JUST A PSYCHOLOGICAL CRUTCH?

- does it matter?

Christian faith meets real psychological needs

- need for love
- need for hope
- need for meaning

→ where do these desires come from?

→ how does it follow that God is a fantasy?

→ why assume you yourself are free from psychological influences?

Christian faith is rooted in real historical events

- the Jesus events ¹

- the Jesus message
 - our needs are not just psychological
 - our needs require more than a crutch

→ take a closer look at him

→ put your trust in him
