Squadron Leader Rev Dr Andrew Hill RAF (Ret'd)

Andrew served for 22 years in the RAF as a Fighter Controller. In a varied career he was, among other things, involved in the regular interception of Russian bomber aircraft intruding into UK airspace, served at the Ballistic Missile Early Warning System base, and qualified as a Surface to Air Missile Controller. At these Remembrance events we will interview him about his life in the RAF and faith in Christ, and he will give a talk explaining the Christian message.
