Teaching Sheep to Fish...

'Follow me and I will make you fishers of men' - Mark 1:17

I've been a Christian for 13 years now, trying my best to follow Jesus and 'fish' for people - bringing them into a saving knowledge of Christ, by the power of the Holy Spirit, which your prayers have played a key part in over the past 12 years of LCM ministry.

As I finish LCM next week and step into pastoral ministry at the 'Globe Church', I'll keep following Jesus and fishing but also seek to grow the church's ability to bring people to Jesus.

In a nutshell I want to teach 'sheep to fish' - hence the image at the top!

It's a good summary of my final prayer request, that I would be used as a church leader to envision and equip my congregation to bring even more sinners home to the saviour, particularly those who live on local estates and follow Islam. Pray for me and my family as we seek to model that too in a brand new part of London.

For those who wish to stay in touch, at the bottom of this letter is my WhatsApp channel which will continue as I step into the role of 'Assistant Pastor' so you can see what I get up to and continue to pray!

My new 'work' email will be James.Tredgett@globe.church for those interested to stay in touch.

So, here we go, final prayer updates. As usual, there's some recent requests for prayer, with a few older pictures thrown in. Isn't it amazing our prayers can impact the lives of those who heard the gospel over a decade ago?

Lastly, do keep supporting LCM now I've left!

Why not peruse their webpage with a map of the areas we work - <https://www.lcm.org.uk/people-places/> - find an area of London you're passionate about, see who's working there, get in touch with them, hear their passion and stories and support them instead of me!

Remember, mine has been one of many stories...

Love, blessings and MERRY CHRISTMAS to you all,

James Tredgett and family xxxxx

Been an emotional past month with various gatherings of people wishing me well for the future and praying for me.

It's been great spending some final moments with folks like Graham Miller (Pictured above) CEO of LCM.

Do keep praying for him and others in leadership at LCM that all they do would be 'for the glory of God and the salvation of sinners.'

God has been so good to us throughout our time at LCM.

He is so worth following and telling others about!

I've made more of an effort this year to step up my evangelism to Muslims by taking on those who frequent places like Speakers Corner, Leicester Square and Stratford.

So many good gospel conversations are had off camera. Do pray for those!

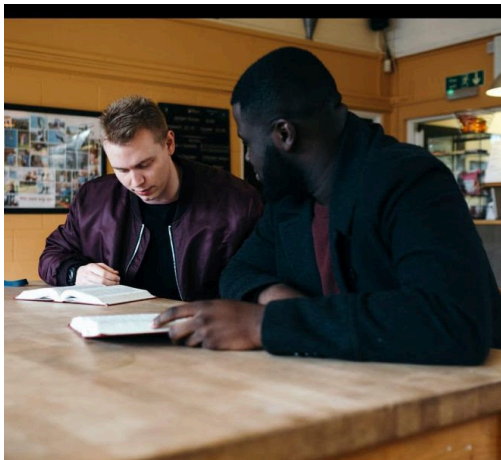

When the cameras come out, I have little faith the one debating in front of me will convert... but for the swarms of people who listen in the crowds and online, I have more hope - do pray for them!

Pray for seeds sown this way, and that even though Muslim social media channels try to twist footage and perspectives (middle picture), that God's word would not return void.

I aim to continue this work of taking on London's big 'dawah' guys, keep praying for me as I do that in the Globe and train up my 'sheep' to do that alongside me!

IF interested, here's a snippet from a Christian YouTube channel of me in action (The Muslim actually lies to my face about the 'Shahada' in this video, it's one of their tactics sadly) - https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eCUB_vxSCG8 - or click the dark image above for a link to the video.

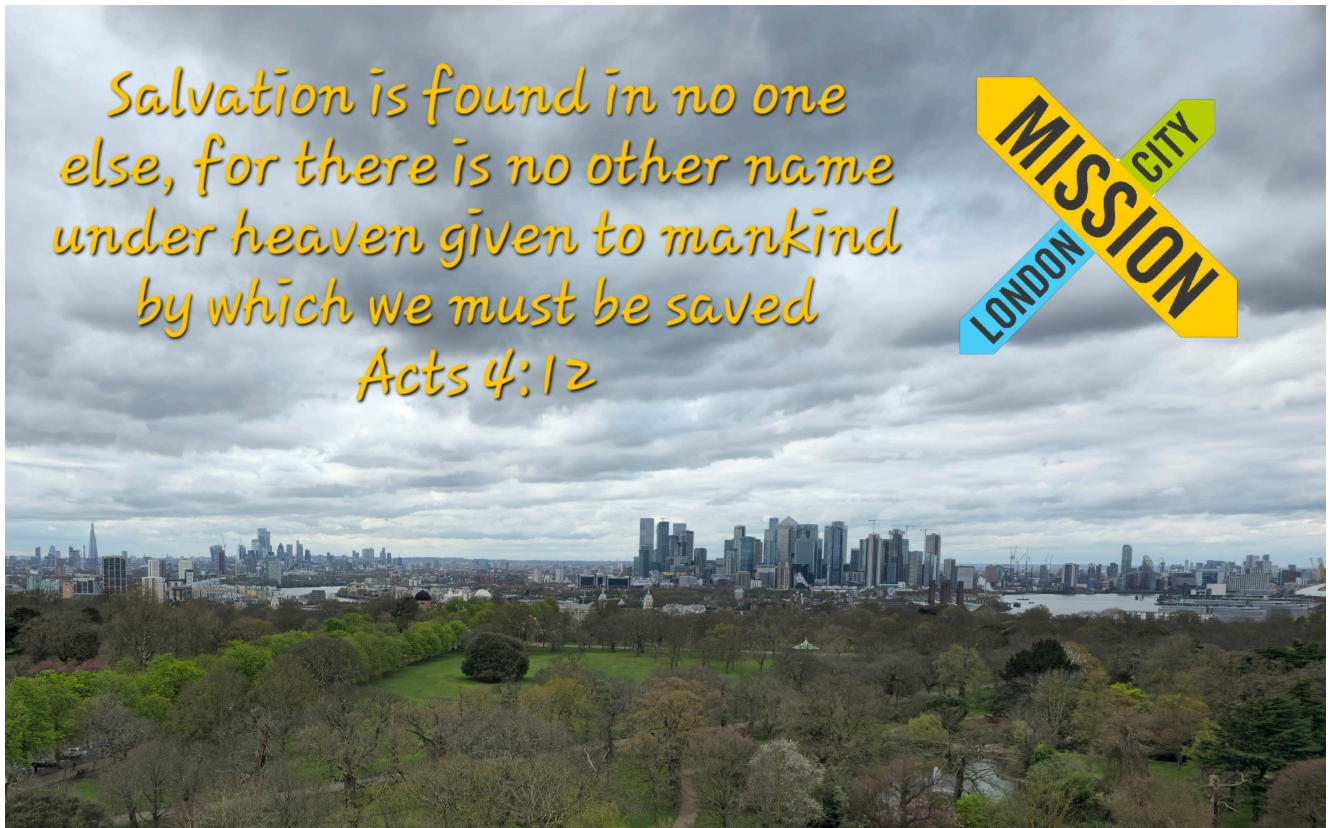

PRAY FOR PAST SEEDS SOWN!!

Above is a few snapshots of things I've been involved in over the past decade, spending time with people from all sorts of faiths, ages, backgrounds. Sharing the gospel whether one to one or to large groups, at all sorts of events and occasions. As well as speaking to Christians in the hope of inspiring them to do the same.

It's never too late to pray into these things. Do join me in giving all my ministry in LCM to God, in the hope that glory will be full of people I had 'random' encounters with during this time.

Family/Personal Prayer updates:

Do Remember my family in your prayers:

Big needs for prayer are:

- Trusting God with the different people I didn't manage to say bye to, Christian and non-Christian.
- A smooth house move to Elephant and Castle, with minimal damage, and a miraculous amount of storage space to appear at our new flat.
- Kids settling into new school well and making new friends.
- For Abi's full recovery after fighting a Kidney infection/stone the past few weeks.
- For me to settle well into the new role and be a blessing to many.
- For a good Christmas despite all the stress of moving!

Click the image for a link to our 'Christmas video', hearing the testimony of a lady who's life has changed through LCM's work at Webber Street.

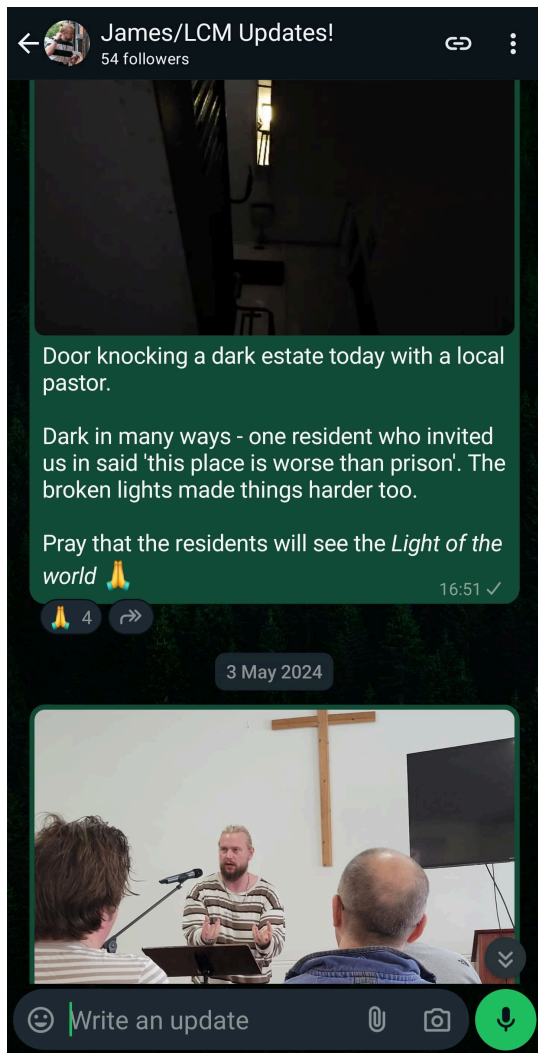

The Globe church often serves at Webber Street so keep an eye out for me and our members in future videos!

Do pray for and support Matt Brinkley, a good friend and colleague of many years who will be stepping into my old role as team leader of Hackney!

Or click on the whatsapp image (left) to be taken to my channel.

Once you've done that, click 'follow'.

Then when you're on WhatsApp and you go to the 'updates' tab, you should see a shortcut to my channel 🙌

It's all anonymous, no one can see your details/reactions. Only I can post on there too. So simple! 😊

Thanks again for your support, and do get in touch anytime - James.tredgett@globe.church or Whatsapp me 07785307615.
