St Peter's Barge

London's Floating Church

*That Christians are encouraged and equipped to live, work,
and witness faithfully in the workplace*

These days hope often feels hard to come by. Where can we find a hope that won't disappoint us? Email info@stpetersbarge.org for more information.

NEXT WEEK

Hebrews overview

Guest speaker: Joel Chia

Joel serves as one of the congregational pastors in Grace Church Greenwich, which he joined when it first started in 2023. Originally from Singapore, Joel worked in finance before moving to London. For six years, he was part of the team at St Helen's Bishopsgate, where he worked with international students and led a workplace ministry in Covent Garden. He cares deeply about people coming to know Jesus, especially the workplace. Alongside ministry, he studied at the Cornhill Training Course and King's College London. He is married to Matilda, enjoys exploring the countryside on two wheels and can often be seen in Lycra.

Luke 8:4-15

The seed of the word (v5a, 11)

Spread the gospel

The path (v5b, 12)

The word can be snatched before it's heard

The rocky soil (v6, 13)

The word can wither in suffering

The thorny soil (v7, 14)

The word can be choked by the good things of life

The fruitful soil (v8, 15a)

We need to grow fruit

What soil will we be? (v15b)¹
