NEXT WEEK

Series: Help for the tempted

Title: Falling to your death (Hebrews 5:11-6:20)

Guest speaker: Jonny Tilford

Jonny was born and raised in Warwick before moving to London where his desire to reach the nations with the gospel was ignited. After a few years working with churches in Europe, Jonny is training in the UK. His secret love of excellent Christian children's music couldn't be contained and he is now delighted to serve the church's children with faithful teaching.

Your help in times of need

Hebrews 4:14-5:10 (pg. 1205)

What hope do we have of making it to the end?

There is hope: Jesus has made it.

1. So, ask Jesus for help... (4:14-16)

2. ...because he is our qualified helper. (5:1-10)

The job description: A priest. (5:1-4)

- Human.
- Makes offerings.
- Appointed.

Jesus' CV super-qualifies him. (5:5-10)

- All of the above. And he was...
- heard,
- saved,
- obedient.
- He saves people forever.

Discussion questions :

1. When do we feel like we don't need help living the Christian life?
2. What most encouraged or challenged you in today's passage?

4 ¹⁴ Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. ¹⁵ For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin. ¹⁶ Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

5 For every high priest chosen from among men is appointed to act on behalf of men in relation to God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. ² He can deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is beset with weakness. ³ Because of this he is bound to offer sacrifice for his own sins just as he does for those of the people. ⁴ And no one takes this honour for himself, but only when called by God, just as Aaron was.

⁵ So also Christ did not exalt himself to be made a high priest, but was appointed by him who said to him,

“You are my Son,
today I have begotten you”;

⁶ as he says also in another place,

“You are a priest for ever,
after the order of Melchizedek.”

⁷ In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to him who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence. ⁸ Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. ⁹ And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, ¹⁰ being designated by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek.
